

Dear FCC,

Please consider this note as my protest to allowing any organization to overturn our current laws concerning telephone privacy in the state of Indiana. Our current laws are just and currently protect Indiana residents from many unwanted or annoying phone calls. Please support the current state law and US law would be better off by following the examples of Indiana.